Details such as dumpster placement, electrical outlet need, use of orange cones, possible silt fence use nixed, boxes and contractor bags for garbage, and a list of vendors and entertainment highlighted the discussion. Rebecca asked all Board members attending to be watchful of the party perimeter and to make sure children do not stray and play in neighboring yards. An email blast will be sent to remind parents to be watchful of their children and respect proximate properties. The Fall General Meeting will take place on October 17th at Gable Hall (parish hall) at St. Martin’s Church. Hospitality will begin at 6:00pm and the meeting will begin at 7:00pm. A save-the-date email will be sent soon. The October HBNA Board Meeting will be held at the home of Bob Connelly. The Board is extremely grateful to Bob for his hospitality!

She is actively looking for a venue for our October General Meeting and will be contacting St. Martin's Church / School, as they have at least two spaces that could welcome a large crowd, as well as their own catering service. The date of Monday, October 17th looks most promising, post-Columbus Day Weekend. TBD. The Annual Street Party is scheduled for September 23, and Rebecca is contacting vendors and helpers. The neighbor who lives at the corner of Lakehaven and Davidson who complained about trespassers last year, will be given an opportunity to let Rebecca and the Board know what we can do to make her Street Party experience more enjoyable.

There will be a DJ, face painting, and a firetruck. Historic Brookhaven magazine gave $500 as a sponsor. Rebecca's most pressing needs include a five-person clean-up crew, additional signs, and the flyer brigade to deliver the newsletter to every mailbox right after Labor Day. Cathy B. offered to coordinate having signs made. Discussion as to how meals would be paid for ensued and it was decided that an email would be sent to residents explaining how meals and drinks can be purchased. Regarding needed trash cans, Carole suggested lining cardboard boxes with trash bags. Neighbors will be asked to pitch in and haul trash away. New Neighbor / General Meeting: Rebecca will be planning for around fifty people. A projector will be requested. Rebecca announced that the Street Party will be on September 17th and that she is beginning to contract with vendors, etc., for the event. Cathy brought forth the idea of a new neighbor party. After some discussion, it was decided that it would be beneficial to new neighbors and existing neighbors to have a New Neighbor / General Meeting on the same evening. October 18th was selected as the date and Rebecca offered to work with the Club to reserve the rooms needed. Lisa M. reported that the Events Committee met on August 9th and discussed potential event dates of 9/15, 9/29, 10/6 (all Sunday evenings) for a new event. They have a meeting scheduled with Alec Frazier (CCC Member Chair) and Matt McKinney (CCC GM) and will present this event and the potential for partnering with CCC. They are working on a name for this event but the concept is to gear it toward adults and new neighbors in a wine/cheese type setting. Goals of event: Promote Community Interaction; Public Relations for HBNA, inform of what we do; Volunteers Recruitment - get more neighbors involved (Hope is working w/VP's on volunteer requests/needs).

The committee has determined that it is unlikely the street party will happen this year due to lack of a volunteer coordinator for the event. It was net ~ $3K per Lisa Martinez benefitting in part from food sales and sponsor revenue. Lisa M. will provide Lisa S-M details of the historical expenses for the street party. January Board Meeting

Frank Clementi announced he had secured a sponsor for the next general meeting. The sponsorship will generate $500 which should cover the meeting expenses. The sponsor, Jere Metcalf, Realtor, will receive advertising via HBNA. There was discussion of planning needed for the general meeting including communication via neighborhood signs and email as well as reserving a room at the Capital City Club.

Lisa Senters reiterated her desire to have someone serve as Chair of the Events Committee. The Street Party and Anniversary Party were discussed. HBNA would like to do both. The Anniversary Party is more geared to adult residents and the Street Party is more family oriented. Timing was discussed with pros and cons of moving the Street Party to the Spring and having the Anniversary Party in the Fall. More input from the neighborhood would be helpful. The Street Party is more planning intensive. A motion was made for Lisa and Susy to survey the neighborhood interest in the two parties and to table further discussion until the next meeting. The motion passed unanimously.

December Board Meeting

The need for an Event Committee Chair was noted. Lisa Senters volunteered to Vice Chair the committee. No further action was taken.
